Israel is beginning construction of "Road 45" — a 400 million shekel project to connect settlements north of Jerusalem and east of Ramallah directly to Route 443 and Jerusalem to super-charge settlement in the WB. A thread 🧵

The road, based on a 1983 military order, will run from Mikhmas settlement to Qalandia checkpoint, creating an interconnected settler road network that fragments Palestinian communities into isolated, ethnic enclaves. 2/3

Legal objections from affected villages (Jaba, Qalandia, Kafr Aqab, al-Ram, Mikhmas, Barqa) were ignored in the colonial kangaroo courts & construction is proceeding. The project aims to erase the Green Line and drive 100,000's of new settlers with easy commutes to Jerusalem. 3/3
